Vermont Election Incidents.

We learn from the Rutland Herald, among the more noticeable manifestations of patriotism, at Middlebury, election day was the voting of the students of the College. At two o'clock p. m., they met on the ground in front of the Chapel, and were formed in procession by Marshall Anthony Carr, and marched down to the Court-House and cast their votes. A flag which had waved over Southern battlefields until it was quite dilapidated, was carried in the procession by a one-legged veteran student, Edwin Sherman. The march was enlivened by singing the song of John Brown's body, and others of like import. After the votes had been cast, loud calls were made for Judge Wade, who responded in a brief but stirring speech, appropriate to the occasion. He was cheered repeatedly, and at the close was given three cheers and a tiger. The procession was then reformed and marched back to the College grounds, here it was broken up. In the evening, the day's work was celebrated by a large bon-fire in front of Simmons' bookstore.

In Morris town nineteen men over twenty years of age voted for Grant on the 3d inst., and one man over seventy for Seymour.

John Kimball, Esq., of Newburg, 91 years old, voted for Grant and Colfax, and has voted at every Presidential election from John Adams down.

The town of Rutland gives Grant 685 majority. The Herald, while it congratulates its Republican friends on the result, yet thinks they ought to have one better. The Herald says: "All hail to old Rutland. May she always in the future, as in the past, uphold Free Speech, Equal Rights, and Freedom for all."

I. O. of G. T.—A Lodge of I. O. of G. T. was organized in Middlebury, on the evening of the 2nd inst., and the following officers elected:
Lyman E. Knap, W. C. T.
W. C. Langworthy, W. V. T.
Miss Lizzie Robbins, W. S.
William M. Slade, Jr., W. F. S.
James C. Langworthy, W. T.
Eugene F. Wright, W. M.
Miss Lizzie Cardelle, W. D. M.
Miss Emma Ticknor, W. I. G.
Lyman Huntington, W. O. G.
Rev. Mr. Walker, W. Chap.
Mr. Walker, W. R. S.

The Lodge will, undoubtedly, be called the Mt. Nebo Lodge.

DEBILITATED.—We learn from the Rutland Herald that M. A. H. Dickerson of Brandon, has sold his famous Durham bull, sixteen months old, to A. B. Decker, of Pittsford, for the sum of $550. This animal was on exhibition at the Rutland County Fair, and was pronounced by competent judges to be as good a yearling bull as they had ever seen.

ENCOURAGE YOUR OWN.—The following very sensible talk we clip from the Vermont Chronicle:

Why not encourage the enterprise of your own fellow citizens, rather than go abroad for what you can use as well obtain at your own door? Is it not better to receive the individual efforts of the community, than to have the professional and business men, all in your village for your advantage, as well as their own? They live near you, for the very purpose of supplying you with the things for which you need them, or herwise be compelled to go abroad, at times when inconvenience and expense attend the journey. What if every one of these men should leave your village? Would not your farm or house or other property be neglected in the market? Most certainly, the man that despises home interests and patronizes chiefly other places is "petty wise and pound foolish." Encourage your own.

Legislature of Vermont—1883.

SENATE.

THURSDAY, NOV. 5.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED.

S. 47, granting a ferry to Algonquin S. Phelps and J. H. Hazen.
S. 48, to pay Noble B. Flanagan the sum therein mentioned.
S. 51, providing for the better preservation of the records of registration.
S. 56, to incorporate the Montpelier Library Association.

REPORTS.

From committee on education, S. 39, in addition to an act concerning the education of children, between the ages of 8 and 14 years, (a substitute bill was reported now standing, S. 67, and entitled an act relating to the education of boys between 8 and 16 years of age).

Senate Farnham spoke in explanation and in favor of the bill. Opposed by Senator Dewey, who, on the acceptance of the report of the committee, called for the yeas and nays, which were as follows: Yeas 15; nays 8.

Sections one and two of the original bill (S. 39) having been entirely stricken out, the question being on the third reading of the remaining sections, and on motion of Senator Farnham was amended.

HOUSE.

RESOLUTION.

By Mr. Briggs of Brandon that the committee on claims be instructed to inquire whether the National Banks in this State have paid all taxes required by law; to commit the same to a committee.

REMONSTRANCES.

By Mr. Wales of Burlington, of citizens of Burlington against setting off a part of Burlington to the town of Colchester; to commit the same to town lines.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

S. 13, for the advancement of the science of medicine and surgery.

Mr. Proctor of Rutland thought that after a man has been hung in accordance with the statute, such cases in medicine provided, that there was no need of further legislation in the matter, unless the committee could throw some light on the subject.

Mr. Wales of Burlington, for Committee said it was difficult for medical science to obtain bodies for dissection, and the provisions of this bill met the case and supply a need of the schools.

Mr. Grout of Barton, said there was a natural abhorrence against a man's body being mutilated after death; but we must bear in mind that the proceedings of an execution are a means of pleasure to the party. If the body is delivered for dissection as provided in this bill, it would give an additional terror to the execution of the death sentence and the more death men from committing crimes which were punishable by death. To make the bill more explicit, he moved to amend so as that the objection to such disposal of the body might be made, not only by a relation but by a friend of the person executed.

Mr. Niles of Thetford, thought the bill was intended to further the science of anatomy in the State, and that the amendment would commit heart matters and practically kill the bill; he hoped the bill would pass as it is.

Mr. Grant of Randolph, opposed the proposed amendment, but was in favor of the bill as it now is. He thought the medical schools could have all the facilities that could be given them for the advancement of the science of medicine; the bill as now drawn a compromise the object desired; if amended it would not.

Mr. Converse of Woodstock said the difficulty arose from a misunderstanding as to the meaning of the term to be used, rather than from any difference of opinion about the object to be obtained by its passage. He preferred the bill as it now stands, without the amendment proposed. If those who proposed to amend wished to confine the objection to the relative, either by all city or consanguinity, he had no objection, but he was opposed to allow the word friend to be introduced.

The amendment was further opposed by Mr. Langdon of New Haven, Mr. Grant of Randolph, and Mr. Jones of Brandon.

Mr. Barnes of Ferrisburgh moved the previous question, which was seconded by the House, and the main question was then put on the amendment proposed by Mr. Grout, and it was lost.

Mr. Proctor of Rutland was not particularly anxious, but he was opposed to the whole tenor and object of the bill as being barbarous, and a revival of the barbarities of former ages. It is no additional punishment to the crime of murder; and the crime having been expiated by execution, let us show at least a decent respect for the poor lifeless body.

Mr. Grout of Barton was opposed to the bill in its form, as not having a table guards thrown around it. On the passage of the bill, Mr. Grout of Barton demanded the yeas and nays, which were taken—yeas 138, nays, 91. So the bill was passed.

On motion of Mr. Jones of Granville, adjourned.

AFTERNOON.

S. 47, to amend an act to incorporate the Burlington Savings Bank; to commit the same on the table.

S. 45, to grant a ferry to Algonquin S. Phelps and Jabez Hazen; to committee on Highways, ferries and bridges.

JOINT ASSEMBLY.

The Senate and House met in joint assembly in the Hall of the House of Representatives at 3 o'clock, for the purpose of electing Judges of the Supreme Court and a Reporter of Decisions of the Supreme Court.

All the Chief Justices were re-elected.

For Reporter of the Decisions of the Supreme Court.

Mr. Pingree of Weatherfield, nominated Wheelock G. Veazey of Rutland, and he was unanimously elected by a viva voce vote.

The Joint Assembly was then dissolved and the Senate withdrew.

THE AMERICAN STOCK JOURNAL.—Farmers wishing a pleasant and profitable reading should send their names and addresses to N. P. Boyer & Co., Parkersburg, Chester Co., Pa., and receive free and post paid, three copies of the above Journal. Also a splendidly illustrated Show Bill and Premium List, offering great inducements to Agents for obtaining subscribers at the low price of $1 per annum.

WHAT MAKES YOUR HAIR SO BEAUTIFUL? MRS. S. A. ALLEN'S IMPROVED (new style) HAIR RESTORER OR DRESSING, (in one bottle). Price One Dollar. Every Druggist sells it.

ORGAN MUSIC.—One of the great obstacles in the encouragement of young would-be organists, is the inaccessibility of the large church organs to any but the organist of the society, who is certainly privileged in having such an instrument at his command. He, even, is deterred from practicing in the winter season, owing to the absence of warmth in the edifice on secular days. A celebrated European organist, while recently examining and performing upon one of Messrs. S. D. & H. W. Smith's larger sized American Organs, remarked that he was fully convinced that for the practice of an organist and development of contrasts in registration and blending of stops, these peculiar instruments were the best he had ever met with, which would serve to develop the ingenuity of the player, especially the students, who would, with remarkable ease, transfer with practical advantage his experience thus obtained to the largest pipe organ, and at the same time have the convenience of practicing at home.

The contrast in the voicing of the stops in Messrs. Smith's Organs is so marked, the shades of expression so delicate, and the gradations of power so entirely under the control, that an indefinite variety in the combination may be obtained. The manipulation and response are so free, that not only may the lighter styles of organ music be satisfactorily performed, but transcriptions from the popular orchestral overtures may be executed with the finest effects, while the small amount of space which they occupy in the drawing-room or parlor, commend them to all who are interested in organ music. LOW-241.

FULTON MARKET.—Just received, a nice lot Dried Beef, Sugar Cured Ham, Bologna Sausage, Sweet Potatoes, Tomatoes, Peas, Peaches, Water Melons and Mask Melons. dtf-94.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, is "a combination and a form indeed," for curing and curing diseases of the lungs, and the chest. It cures a cough by loosening and cleansing the lungs, and laying irritation; thus removing the cause, instead of drying up the cough and leaving the disease behind.

Why stand you thus amazed? To see a person of your natural beauty with a head of dry, bristling, unkempt hair, so purchase a bottle of "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative." It will transform your hair into beautiful glossy ringlets. Nothing so efficacious has ever been offered to the public.—Lowest Corner.

It is strange to see with what carelessness some invalids attend to their health. They will procure a box of Plantation Bitters, which ought to be used up in a month or six weeks, and upon inquiry it is found that they have used only two or three bottles. Some days they have used it according to the directions, and others have not touched it. The whole trial has been irregular, and of course a less favorable result has come from their use. If it be true that "what is worth doing at all is worth doing well," how emphatically is it true in matters relating to the health. A few bottles of Plantation Bitters have often wrought wonders, while in other instances disease has only been subdued after weeks of resistance.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price.

THE AMERICAN COOKING STOVE.—Having been so eminently successful at the New York State Fair for the past six years' having been brought in competition with all the best stoves in the country, and having each and every year taken the first premium, and some years two, and having gained a worldwide reputation, and a record of which any one may be justly proud, we would now announce for the consolation of those who have so signally and repeatedly failed in competing with it, and have been so sorely chagrined at their numerous and repeated defeats, that this stove is not entered at this fair for a premium, as premiums have ceased to be of any account; but it is entered only for exhibition, that its thousands of friends and admirers may have the opportunity of examining its various improvements.

The N. Y. Election

Meeting of the Union League.

HOFFMAN'S ELECTION TO BE CONTESTED.

Republican Majority in Iowa, 55,000.

From Havana.

New York, 6th.

A Paris special says that owing to the French budget not being ready the Chambers will not be open until the middle of December.

Several private meetings, numbering from 600 to 700 persons, have been held by the leaders of the Democratic party in several cities of France.

At a meeting of the Union League Club, last night, the naturalization frauds at the late election were discussed, and a resolution offered by Mr. Greeley for the appointment of a committee to take measures to investigate the matter, and requesting John A. Griswold and his associates to contest the election of Hoffman, which was adopted. Mr. Griswold was present.

Judge Dowling, the Democratic City Justice, yesterday gave notice that he would hereafter hold no official intercourse with Police Superintendent Kennedy, except through the District Attorney, as he had insulted the judiciary of the city.

A Des Moines, Iowa, despatch to the Tribune says that 41 counties give a Republican majority of 31,000, a gain of 14,300. It says, we shall have not less than 55,000 in the State. The suffrage amendment is adopted by over 30,000.

A Havana letter of the 31st ult., states that on the 27th, the Capt.-General received instructions from the Provisional Government to inaugurate in Cuba such reforms as have been adopted in Spain. Lersundi, up to the 31st, had kept the despatch as secret as possible.

Numerous arrests are being made, the prisoners in most cases being supporters of the revolutionists in Spain.

It was stated that Lersundi contemplated leaving the island for New York.

Details of the fight tends to the conclusion that the insurgents are brave and determined. They are said to number about 5,000 men, and are favorable to independence or annexation to the United States.
